MILEAGE

BHSSC encourages the use of fleet vehicles at all times for business travel. However, if you have approval to drive your personal vehicle you may be eligible for mileage reimbursement. Employee's electing to drive a personal vehicle are not covered by BHSSC's insurance.

For mileage reimbursement the Destination (ex: city or facility) and Activity/Justification Column (activity, purpose, or reason for travel) must be completed. The total number of miles for which you are claiming reimbursement should be entered in the Miles Driven column. Mileage will be calculated and reimbursed at the rate of .42 per mile.

PER DIEM

You may be eligible for per diem ONLY if your travel includes an overnight stay. The rates for in-state and out-of-state per diem are available below, along with guidelines for corresponding departure and return times (be sure to use a colon to separate hours and minutes, i.e. 10:45 PM. If you stayed with family or friends, or lodging was provided for you, note that in the Lodging column,

REIMBURSE

Reimbursement for other travel expenses, such as cab fare or airport parking will be made with original itemized receipt only. Note the dollar amount of your request in the Other Reimburse column and attach the original receipt to your Reimbursement & Travel Form.

Purchases from established vendors (vendors that have existing accounts with BHSSC) should be made with a PO and not paid for by the employee. The use of a PO avoids payment of state sales tax and may offer additional business discounts on the purchase.

Requests for other pre-approved expenses should be entered in the Other Reimburse column on the date they were incurred, and the original itemized receipt attached to your Reimbursement & Travel Form.

If you are claiming reimbursement for meals purchased for a meeting, the program and the initials of the participant(s) at that meeting must be written on the itemized receipt or you may attach a list of participants. The amount of the reimbursement requested goes in the Other Reimburse column and the original itemized receipt must be submitted with your Reimbursement & Travel form.
